

'THE CHALLENGE OF CHILD ABUSE – WHEN TO REPORT?'

OFFICE
OF THE
★ DIRECTOR OF PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS

In conjunction with the Office of the Director of Professional Standards and as part of our personal development training days we have decided this year to run a child protection workshop 'The challenge of child abuse – when to report?'

Who?

Interested teaching staff are being offered the opportunity to undertake 'The challenge of child abuse – when to report?' workshop.

Presenter:

CHRIS-MAREE SULTMANN (Director of Encompass Family and Community)

Bachelor of Social Work, First Class Honours, 1988 (University of Queensland)
Queensland representative on the national editorial board of the journal Children Australia

Chris-Maree is an exceptional trainer whose expertise and fresh approach are acknowledged in Queensland and other States. She has over 19 years experience in child protection policy and practice work, including the development of state-wide training and best practice resources. Chris-Maree's analytical skills are highly sought after – she brings to all projects a critical overview of latest knowledge and evidence-based practice. She is passionate about supporting frontline workers and program managers to interpret information from research for effective use in practice.

EFAC specialises in training, research, consultancy and case services to government, community and other non-government agencies in the child, youth and family welfare fields.

Date and Location of session:

Session: Thursday 21st May 2009 Fraser Coast Anglican College

Time: 9.00am to 1.00pm

Purpose of the course:

1. To better prepare you for identifying child abuse situations
2. To give you a broader understanding of child abuse
3. To better arm you with better skill to handle an situation
4. To inform you of what can and cannot be done.

Chris-Maree will conduct a very interactive workshop to give you the opportunity to ask questions and raise issues about reporting abuse. You are encouraged to consider specific situations you have had to deal with and discuss them [without names] in the workshop.

Please find attached the course registration form.

We look forward to seeing you at our 'The challenge of child abuse – when to report?' workshop.
